

WRITING ABOUT YOUR COLLEGE

1. Describe the most important stages of your college's history.
2. Is there any distinguished piece of art on the college campus? Why is it there? Explain and tell the audience what meaning it has for you.
3. What structural and financial challenges did your college face in its history?
4. What is your college best known for?
5. How can students avoid procrastination and unnecessary mistakes?
6. Are you a member of any fraternity? What criteria did you have to meet to join them?
7. What are the subjects your college is best teaching? Why is that?
8. How does your college handle sporting events, and what meaning do they have for students?
9. How can students choose the most suitable college and university? What would you recommend that students do to overcome strong competition in their admission to college?
10. What should applicants do to increase their chances for scholarship?
11. What does it take to be a good roommate?
12. What types of food should students avoid to preserve their physical health, while being on the campus?
13. How can students overcome the difficulties associated with their admission to college?
14. Why are students so homesick?
15. Is it realistic to win college elections without belonging to a higher academic caste?
16. What are the things you must have with you, when you arrive to college for the first time?
17. What should a student do to pass all exams without any problem?

18. What if a student wants to commit a crime – what will you do?
19. Is there any reason your college should invest more money in athletics?
20. Is there any way for students to minimize their tuition debts?
21. Are there any distinctive architectural elements on your campus? Describe their historical significance.
22. What do students in your college do to improve their academic results?
23. What are the most radical ways to avoid academic failures in college?
24. How can you be sure that the fraternity of your choice is the best place to spend your free time?
25. How can you protect yourself from being with wrong people on the campus?

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

26. What are the chances that future robots will look like humans?
27. Can nanotechnology benefit college education? How?
28. Why are there more people with obesity?
29. Explain the principles behind distance education and online campuses.
30. Electric clothing – what is it?
31. What changes in brain development does a person undergo with age?
32. What is a gene? What role does it play in human evolution?
33. Is there any probability that Google Glass will be outlawed? What are the ethical ramifications of using it in daily interactions?
34. What is global warming?
35. Who were the most ancient humans and how they changed over the course of time?
36. Why are Milgram's experiments still controversial and what should researchers do to avoid his mistakes?

37. What new planets have recently been discovered?
38. What role can 3D printers play in the evolution of medical technologies?
39. What is obesity? What are its causes? Get quality assistance with your obesity paper from XXX.com.
40. Are there any proofs that we are not alone in the universe?
41. How safe is nuclear energy?
42. Why is the incidence of autoimmune disorders growing and what can the western world do about them?
43. How is electronic money produced and used globally?
44. How close is the science to creating an interstellar spacecraft?
45. What is the mechanism behind vaccination and is it safe?
46. What is electronic paper?
47. Why does the growing number of people experience allergic reactions?
48. How can nanotechnologies change the lives of humans?
49. What is the string theory?
50. Is there any chance to prevent Parkinson's and Alzheimer's in elderly patients?

SOCIAL ISSUES

51. What are the main causes of homelessness in the developed world?
52. How does drug and alcohol addiction influence the quality of family relations?
53. How are foreigners who commit crimes on the U.S. territory prosecuted? What are their rights and obligations?
54. How does being single impact the way children function?
55. What does it mean being an illegal immigrant in the U.S.?

56. Is affirmative action still relevant in the U.S.? What is its role in reducing the scope of discrimination in society?
57. What is racism? Is it still prevalent in the U.S.?
58. What is ISIS? How dangerous is it to Americans?
59. Are there any legal exceptions for juvenile offenders who regret being criminals?
60. Is the U.S. a welfare state? Explain the concept and its meaning for the U.S.
61. Why does the number of teenage births in the U.S. continue to decrease?
62. What can schools do to minimize the risks of bullying?
63. Should poor and unemployed Americans have access to food stamps?
64. How will the price of oil change in the nearest future?
65. Why do so many women stay in marriage despite their husbands' violence?
66. Why do so many adolescents want to flee their homes?
67. What does it mean to be poor in America?
68. What happens to students, if they are expelled from colleges or universities for ethics violations?
69. How does the system of welfare in the U.S. work?
70. What is the Red Cross and how does it contribute to global peace?
71. Do you think that any of your friends should be punished for their misdeeds? Why or why not?
72. How do you think social media affect family relationships?
73. What do you think of gifted students?
74. Will public libraries survive the technology boom?
75. Should everyone have easy access to quality medical care, regardless of their insurance status?

TOPICS IN MENTAL HEALTH

76. How frequent are psychological disorders in the western world?
77. Can you tell that a person has ADHD? Explain its signs and symptoms.
78. What is the value of art therapy in treating mental health disorders?
79. What is counseling?
80. What does acrophobia mean?
81. What is countertransference in counseling?
82. What education should a mental health practitioner have to provide qualified assistance?
83. What is the difference between psychology and psychiatry?
84. How can psychiatrists contribute to public health?
85. Why do more people report the symptoms of depression and how can they avoid it?
86. Do you think psychologists can reduce the scope of discrimination and violence in society?
87. What does it mean to be popular?
88. What does it mean to be a hero?
89. What is schizophrenia and can it be treated?
90. How do mentally sick family members influence the quality of relationships with other relatives?
91. What is egoism?
92. Is there any best method for critiquing a psychology article? What is it?
93. How do counselors avoid ethical conflicts with their clients?
94. What does it mean to be a genius?
95. How does memory develop early in life?
96. How do the right and left brain hemispheres interact?

- 97. What is counseling? How does it work?
- 98. Why do people forget the most important things?
- 99. How do children develop?
- 100. How do people learn by experience?

